

MEET OUR SPEAKER TODAY, PASTOR BEN BROWN...

Chaplain, 1LT Benjamin A. Brown serves as a Chaplain at the 182d Airlift Wing located in Peoria, Illinois. In this capacity, Chaplain Brown provides spiritual care for members and their families by conducting religious observances and services, providing crisis counseling, advising leadership, advocating for religious accommodations, and through visitations.

Chaplain Brown enlisted in the Air National Guard in September 2002 and completed Fuel Systems Technical Training in August 2003. He attended Liberty Baptist Theological Seminary and commissioned in November 2019, being endorsed by the Church of the Nazarene. Prior to being commissioned, Chaplain Brown served at the 182d Airlift Wing as an Enlisted Hydraulics Systems Maintenance Traditional Guardsman and Technician.

Pastor Ben leads Activate in KidZone and teaches the JOY Sunday School class.

Expression of Thanks and Appreciation from Pastors Lloyd & Kim Brock

Thank you to everyone in the PFN Church family, Summit Nazarene, Southside Community, Church Board & the entire staff for all your love, kindness and gifts toward us. The beautiful and fun reception, photographs and photo book, gifts, an amazing and generous love offering along with thousands of kind words, well wishes, cards and prayers of support are all cherished by us. You are our best friends, and serving at PFN has been more than we could have ever dreamed. We are better people and better pastors because of you. We have grown so much with Jesus alongside you. We celebrate the great days for the Church and the greatest days of ministry in our lives. We love you and thank you for all the ways you have given to and invested in us. We are monumentally blessed. Thank you so much and thank you Jesus!
